Algerian Tirailleurs on the march to Rheims.

The above picture, which was obtained recently in France, shows a column of Algerian Tirailleurs—popularly known as Turcos—on the march northward toward Rheims. These sharpshooters form part of the forces raised by the French in Algeria from the native population. The officers and a certain proportion of non-commissioned officers are French. There are four regiments of these Algerian sharpshooters, each consisting of six battalions—each has now eight. They wear baggy white breeches and either turbans or caps. They carry a fairly weighty pack, with their cooking utensils strapped on in the characteristic French fashion. They march in the ordinary French service boot. They must not be mistaken for the Zouaves, who, although wearing the same baggy trousers, are formed of native-born French troops with French officers. Both form part of the Nineteenth French Army Corps and are organized with headquarters at Algiers, Oran and Constantine. The Algerian Tirailleur, or Turco, has shown extraordinary bravery in the present campaign.

GRAVE SITUATION IN SOUTH AFRICA.

England Awaits the Disavowal by Ten Leaders of Fealty to Maritz.

Belgians and the Allies are Believed to Have Effected a Junction that May Hold Back the Germans in Their Rush for the French Coast—Extreme Right of the Invading Army Forced to Withdraw.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Oct. 15.—A Daily News dispatch from Johannesburg dated Wednesday says that while there is quiet confidence in the ability of the Union government to subdue the rebellion led by Maritz, the situation contains a big element of gravity. The unsettling feature is the maintenance of silence by ten leading men whose disavowal of association with Maritz in the traitorous scheme would go far to relieve the tension of anxiety, as to probable developments. There is not the slightest sign of wavering, however, on the part of the government, and a widespread feeling exists that Botha has made adequate dispositions to grapple with any emergency. The brightest feature in the situation is the astonishing rally to Botha from unexpected quarters and the absolute solidarity of individual centers where political divisions have disappeared in the united effort to justify South Africa.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 15, 12:01 a.m.—The exact positions of the bulk of the allied armies are being kept strictly secret, but it is believed the forces in France and Belgium have joined hands since the fall of Antwerp.

The German cavalry around Hazebrouck, France, which masked a movement of the infantry, suffered a rude check from the allies before the battle at Ypres, because the Germans were unable to operate freely in masses, owing to the nature of the ground where they were virtually at the mercy of the allies' infantry and artillery.

Some lively street fighting occurred in Hazebrouck, on which place the Germans had made a daring raid, while at Arras the town hall was burned to the ground during a bombardment.

The section where encounters are severest has suddenly changed from Roye to Lassigny, where the Germans tried to make a breach through the allied lines. The battle, however, is still progressing about Roye, which has been taken and retaken at least twelve times.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 14, 9:30 p.m.—While it is fully expected the Germans will reach Ostend and other ports in the northwest of Belgium, it they have not done so already, they will meet a stubborn resistance in their attempt to extend the right wing of their main army through Pas de Calais to the French northern ports. In fact, they have fallen back in this region in the face of the allies' offensive.

A few days ago the German cavalry were fighting as far west as Hazebrouck and Cassel, but today, according to the French official communication issued this afternoon, the front of this battle extends from La Bassée through Estaires to Bailleur on the Belgian frontier while across the border the allies have occupied Ypres. This is a distinct gain for the allies and shows that the German attempt to work around their left has failed, the German right being bent back toward Lille and Courtrai, both of which the invaders hold with strong forces.

It is here the heavy blows, which both sides hope will bring about a decisive result in the long-drawn-out battle, will be struck. It is for this reason that the Germans will be able to make their way to Ostend, although the invaders hold with strong forces.

The censorship has prohibited any mention of the operations to the north of Arras, which probably is responsible for the belief that the allies have prepared what one military critic declares is "a smashing blow, which will be the more crushing in its effect the longer it is delayed."

Of the recent fighting elsewhere, the French communication simply says that the operations are proceeding normally on the left wing as far as the Oise, that the allies' progress in the Berry-au-Bac region is confirmed and that on the right wing there is nothing new.

For the first time, however, the French General Staff takes notice of and denies some claims put forth by the Germans. It is denied that two French cavalry divisions have been destroyed, and it is asserted, on the other hand, that the aviators from the French cavalry inflicted severe loss on the German cavalry. It is declared also that the Germans have not come into touch with the fortress of Verdun and that attempts to do so have failed, while in their effort to cross the Meuse at St. Mihiel they were outflanked.

German reports coming through Rome say that the real struggle is stubbornly just begun, and that if necessary five million men can be called upon for compulsory service, while many volunteers also are available.

GALICIA.

Vienna makes the claim that the Russians have evacuated Lemberg, while the Russians have denied a similar report that they had given up the siege of Przemyel. It would not surprise military men if the Russians withdrew from Galicia to concentrate their forces for the supreme struggle, which, with the advance of the Austro-German armies into Poland, is now upon them along the Vistula River from south of Warsaw to their southern boundary.

Nothing has come through concerning the battle on the East Prussian frontier, but the activity of the German fleet in the Baltic and Gulf of Finland may preface the arrival of German reinforcements, which, it was reported some days ago, were being embarked at German Baltic ports.

A German squadron, the flagship of which is flying the flag of Prince Henry of Prussia, has been cruising in the vicinity of Aland Island, and only a day or two ago the Russian cruiser Pallada was torpedoed by German submarines, two of which were destroyed. The presence of the German ships probably would prevent the Russian warships from coming out to interfere with transports should there be any about.

TURKEY AND PORTUGAL.

There was every indication today that Turkey and Portugal would be drawn into the war. Portugal has not declared war on Germany, as was reported earlier in the day, but a partial mobilization of her forces will be ordered tomorrow, and martial law has been declared in Portuguese Congo. Portugal has an alliance with Great Britain, but this is purely a defensive one, and was negotiated for the protection of Portugal and not with the idea that Portugal ever should be called upon to come to the assistance of Great Britain. However, the sympathy of that country is known to be with the allies, and she has had some small difficulties with the Germans in Africa. A short time ago a German

MUENSTERBERG RESIGNS AS HARVARD PROFESSOR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) Oct. 14.—Hugo Munsterberg, professor of psychology at Harvard University, tonight said that he had offered his resignation to President Lowell. This action is the result of a letter sent by Maj. Clarence Wiener of London to the overseers of the college to the effect that he would change a will by which Harvard would receive $100,000 unless Prof. Munsterberg were dismissed from the faculty.

"Unwarranted pro-German utterances" by the famous psychologist in connection with the war, were given by Maj. Wiener as the reason for his attitude.

"I sent my resignation to President Lowell so that there might be no embarrassment in the matter, and that the faculty be left free to act without having to consider my feelings," said Prof. Munsterberg.

President Lowell refused to discuss the resignation.

The Harvard corporation is expected to take up Maj. Wiener's letter and Prof. Munsterberg's resignation next week.

OSTEND'S FATE IN THE BALANCE; PEOPLE FIGHT TO BOARD SHIPS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

OSTEND, Oct. 14 (via London, Oct. 15).—Ostend's fate hangs in the balance. The government has left King Albert and the main military headquarters left Tuesday, and 40,000 panic-stricken people await the action of the Germans, who are known to have a strong force within twenty miles of the city.

The inhabitants are feeling as fast as ships can be provided to carry them to England. Hospitals were emptied today and the docks were lined with injured soldiers. Hundreds were carried on litters, while those less severely wounded hobbled on canes and crutches, supported by Red Cross nurses, doctors, nuns and priests.

The wounded were given preference on the transports provided for the beleaguered city, while 25,000 struggling people were massed upon the docks and terminals, attempting to find places on the refugee ships. A German Taube flew over the harbor and struck terror to those below, many of whom had come here from Antwerp and who feared the airships might drop bombs on the docks and continued the fusillade ten minutes. This created still greater consternation among the thousands of women and children, many of whom had set for three days on the cement floor of the great terminal sheds, their nerves at the breaking point.

ESCAPE BY LAND CUT OFF.

Escape by land is cut off from all sides and thousands were still gathered miserably on the docks when the last relief ship left late last night because of danger from mines. Still the crowds wait on the piers, awaiting dawn and more ships. Even the refugees who managed to find deck space on the crowded transports were not relieved of the terrible strain under which they have been laboring for the watchful Taube flew over the steamer, observing their movements as they sailed out of the harbor.

The aeroplanes did not drop bombs, however, as one had on previous days when both civil and military hospitals were so narrowly missed by exploding shells that the Belgians charged that the Germans were aiming at the hospitals.

Last night was one of terror to the residents of Ostend and the thousands of refugees fleeing before the German invasion. Wounded soldiers were brought here by the score from Ghent. It is reported that they were engaged Monday near Ghent in a serious battle with the Germans. The allies are said to have had a small force against a large German force and were obliged to withdraw toward the west. Consequently, there is virtually no obstacle to the German advance on Ostend.

FIRING HEARD PLAINLY.

Firing in the direction of Ghent was heard plainly in Ostend on Monday and Tuesday. The terrified refugees who were at the siege of Antwerp blanched as they listened to the bombardment and increased the fear among the residents of Ostend by ascribing the horrors attending the fall of that fortress.

Most of the business houses in Ostend closed yesterday. The professional men, merchants and hotel-keepers joined the throng that dared not leave the water front for fear of losing places in refugee ships.

All taxicabs and cab horses were taken by the army long ago, so there was little means of transportation. The tram cars were commandeered by the hospitals and civilians had little chance in the morning to leave the quays, which remained open, were crowded with refugees who had money and who begged for the opportunity to rent even a chair.

Tuesday night brought insistent reports that the Germans would enter Ostend.

Concentrating.

LIBERATION OF OSTEND ARMY
OBJECT OF ALLIES' ATTACKS.

BY AN ASSOCIATE EDITOR OF "THE ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL"

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 14.—The British and French are concentrating their efforts along the Belgian border in an important effort to keep open the way for the escape of the army at Ostend. By forcing the Germans back from their advanced position at Ypres, they make more difficult the attempt of the Germans to interpose between their flank and the detached force at Ostend. If the allies can hold back the cavalry corps that are operating on the right flank of Gen. Von Boehm's army, the Belgian army will have only that of Gen. Von Bessler to fight. This last outmanned the Belgians, but a stern chase is a long chase and the Belgians should in this case escape to the protection of their allies in France. No definite news has been given out of any retreat from Ostend, but several factors make it likely. The present week is the most serious one for the allies since the battle of the Marne. While they seem unable to make successful attacks on the German field works, the latter seem to be able to capture permanent fortifications.

OFFICIAL REPORTS OF THE GREAT WAR.

German Troops Forced Back by Attacks of the British Fighters.

Berlin Admits the Enemy is now Only Able to Maintain His Position Before the Eastern Fortress of Przemyel—In the Carpathians the Russians are Said to be Fleeing.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

ENGLISH.

LONDON, Oct. 14, 10:05 p.m.—The official press bureau tonight issued the following statement: "British troops have been engaged with the enemy towards the left of the allied line (in France) with the result that the Germans have been pressed back slightly on their flank. The nature of the country in which the fighting has been conducted being a mining center makes rapid progress difficult."

GERMAN.

LONDON, Oct. 14, 9:50 p.m.—The following official statement, given out in Berlin, has been received here by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company: "It was announced officially in Vienna yesterday that our troops advancing against Przemyel, supported by a sortie of the garrison, have repulsed the attacking troops in such a way that the enemy is now able to maintain his position only before the eastern front of the fortress. Several military bridges near Soukies broke down during the retreat, and many Russian troops were drowned in the River San. "Fighting east of Chyrow, Galicia, Monday."

AUSTRIAN.

MANCHESTER (Mass.) Oct. 14.—The Austro-Hungarian Embassy here tonight announced receipt of an official wireless message from the home government, as follows: "Our advance in Galicia has forced the Russians to lessen their efforts against Przemyel. Yesterday morning our bombardment greatly weakened the Russians, who began to withdraw part of their forces at Lancut. Our advancing columns met strong Russian forces fighting with which still is continuing. Kurawadow, on the San, has been retaken by us. "In the Carpathians, the Russians are fleeing from the Marossee district at Botkase. "Polish refugees in Vienna give information that the Russians, after the occupation of Lemberg, sent the famous Polish Institute, housed in the Ossolinsky Institute, to Petrograd. The most prominent public edifices in the town have been undermined and the Russians have declared their intention to blow them up as soon as they are forced to leave the town."

FRENCH.

PARIS, Oct. 14, 11:00 p.m.—The official communication issued tonight by the War Office says: "The reports received tonight, which are in very general terms, indicate no important modification in the situation. "The following official announcement was given out in Paris this afternoon: "The Belgian field of operations there were some encounters during the night of October 13-14 and during the day of the 15th in the region around Ghent. The French and English troops have occupied Ypres. "First, on our left wing, as far as the Oise, the operations are developing normally. "Second, on the center previous reports of the progress of our armies in the region of Berry-au-Bac have been confirmed. "Third, on our right wing there is nothing new. "While it is not our custom to reply to the inaccuracies of the German press, it seems to us proper to denounce the false news published in certain German newspapers concerning the pretended destruction of two divisions of French cavalry. This information is absolutely erroneous. "The truth is that certain forces of French and German cavalry with support have been engaged for several days along the front at La Bassée, Etales and Bailleul. The German cavalry succeeded in making a very slight advance before the central La Bassée and the Lys, but they were obliged to draw back in the territory north of the Lys. "The losses sustained by the German cavalry are assuredly as perceptible as our own."

JAPANESE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The East and West News Bureau tonight gave out a cable message from Tokyo, dated October 14, as follows: "Acting upon the message sent the Japanese Emperor to save the non-belligerents from the danger arising from siege operations, the German and Japanese emissaries met on October 13. As the result of their negotiations, the American Consul, with a number of women and children of German nationality, are to leave Tientsin on October 15 and be sent to Ching-Pu, on the San Tung Railway, now under the control of the Japanese army. "The Japanese Peace Society gave on October 13 a dinner at the Nippon Club, Tokyo, in honor of Mr. Allen, president of the California Peace Society. It was attended by Baron Shiba, Baron Sakata, Dr. Soyama, Mr. Nakano and other prominent men, and a toast was proposed, amid cheers, to the friendly nations on both shores of the Pacific."

RUSSIAN.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 14.—The following official communication from the General Staff was issued tonight: "On the left bank of the Vistula, along the roads leading from Warsaw to Ivanograd, our troops on October 13 successfully pressed back the German forces. One of our regiments captured two German companies. "Fighting continues to the south of Przemyel. "There are no important changes on the other fronts."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Col. Golewsk, military attaché of the Russian Embassy, received today the following official dispatch from Petrograd: "A battle has begun on a line extending from the country around Warsaw along the Rivers Vistula and San to Przemyel and farther to the south to the River Dniester. "In East Prussia, the situation remains unchanged. "Later the Russian Embassy received the following official report from Petrograd: "On the left bank of the Vistula, on the roads leading from Warsaw and Ivanograd, on October 13, our troops successfully repulsed the Germans. One regiment captured two German companies. To the south of Przemyel a battle is in progress. On the other

SERVIAN.

LONDON, Oct. 14, 11:30 p.m.—The following Servian official statement, given out in Nish, has been received by the Reuter Telegram Company: "On Sunday night the enemy attempted two attacks on the extreme right wing of the front between Svornik (Boznia) and Losniza (Servia). The attacks were repulsed with heavy losses to the Austrians. "On Monday morning they attempted to attack the Servians twice on the left bank of the Save River. They were repulsed on each occasion with great loss. Our artillery, by its accurate fire, spread panic in the ranks of the enemy."

RESTIVE.

MANY RESERVES ARE MAROONED.

AUSTRIANS AND GERMANS FAIL TO SAIL FOR EUROPE.

Half a Million Registered at Consulates of Their Respective Countries Cannot Reach Scene of Fighting Because Fleets of the Allies Control the Seas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Half a million men, Austrian and German, are registered at the consulates of their countries in the United States ready to return to Europe and bear arms as soon as a means of transportation for them becomes available. It was announced at the Austro-Hungarian Consulate here today. Ninety-five per cent of them have had military training. "Tomorrow will be the last day when Austrian subjects in this country may register under their government's army order granting full amnesty to all who deserted or fled from their military service. More than 1000 Austrians registered here today in person or by letter or telegram. "With the fleets of the allied powers virtually controlling the Atlantic, French, Belgian and English reservists and volunteers are leaving New York in great numbers, but Fritz Fischer, Austrian Vice-Consul here, said there appeared little likelihood that any great part of the half-million Austrians and Germans would be able to sail very soon. "A call to the colors of all former non-commissioned officers up to the age of 45 years was issued today by Emperor of England, French Consul-General here. "The usual age limit for active service in France is 41 years. Having Maj.-Gen. von Bodenhausen, was due probably to the high death rate among non-commissioned officers in the trenches and the necessity for a big staff to train recruits."

GEN. BARSEVIT GIVEN COMMAND.

TYPHUS REPORTED IN GERMAN ARMY.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—"Typhus has broken out in the German lines, particularly to the north of Soissons," says a dispatch from Paris to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The French are taking the utmost precautions to prevent the disease spreading to their ranks. The troops already have been vaccinated twice."

GERMAN AIR BOMB MISSES POINCARÉ AND JOFFRE.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The Paris correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, in a dispatch dated Wednesday, says: "Now that the headquarters of the French staff has been changed, it has become possible to announce that when President Poincaré visited Gen. Joffre last week at Romilly-sur-Seine, a German aviator dropped a bomb in the town, doing no damage. "The news of the approaching visit of President Poincaré had been communicated to the enemy by a spy. One of their best pilots was sent out with a bomb, which he was ordered to drop on the quarters occupied by the President and Gen. Joffre. A French aviator named Francis immediately pursued and brought down the raider. Francis was rewarded by M. Poincaré, who pinned the cross of the Legion of Honor on the aviator's tunic."

ENGLISH DENY STORY OF PACT WITH BELGIUM.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Formal denial of the story made public in Berlin alleging that an agreement existed between Belgium and Great Britain prior to the war was issued here tonight by the British Embassy. The Embassy says that it is merely a new version of the story that has been told in varying ways and denied at different times. The statement follows: "The story of the alleged Anglo-Belgian agreement of 1904 published in the German press and based on documents said to have been found at Brussels is only a fresh edition of a story which has been reproduced in various forms and denied on several occasions. "No such agreement has ever existed, as the Germans well know. Gen. Grierson is dead and Col. (now general) Barnardiston is commanding the British forces before Tientsin. In 1904 Gen. Grierson was on the General Staff at the War Office and Col. Barnardiston was Military Attaché at Brussels. "In view of the solemn guarantee given by Great Britain to protect the neutrality of Belgium against violation from any side, some academic discussions may, through the instrumentality of Col. Barnardiston, have taken place between Gen. Grierson and the Belgian military authorities as to what assistance the British army might be able to afford to Belgium should one of her neighbors violate her neutrality. Some notes with reference to the subject may exist in the archives at Brussels. "It should be noted that the date mentioned, namely, 1904, was the year following that in which Germany had, as in 1911, adopted a threatening attitude towards France with regard to Morocco, and in view of the apprehensions existing at that time from France through Belgium it was natural that possible eventualities should be discussed. "The impossibility of Belgium having been party to any agreement of the nature indicated or to any desire for violation of Belgian neutrality is clearly shown by the reiterated declaration that she had made for many years past, that she would resist to the utmost any violation of her neutrality from whatever quarter and in whatever form such violation might come. "It is worthy of attention that these charges of aggressive designs on the part of other powers are made by Germany, who, since 1906, has established an elaborate network of strategic railways leading from the Rhine to the Belgian frontier through a barren, thinly-populated tract, deliberately constructed to permit of the sudden attack upon Belgium, which was carried out two months ago."

Proclamation.

"VICTORY OF JUSTICE" CERTAIN, SAY BELGIANS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The proclamation posted in Ostend and announcing the withdrawal of the Belgian government to France was received by cable tonight at the Belgian legation. The text follows: "Citizens: For about two and a half months the Belgian soldiers have been defending, foot by foot, at the price of heroic efforts the fate of their country. The enemy certainly expected to annihilate our army in Antwerp; but a retreat in which the order and dignity have been irreproachable, has successfully foiled this hope and has assured us the conservation of military forces which will continue to fight without respite for the rest of the war. At this moment these forces are operating in the direction of our southern frontier, where they are supported by the allies. Thanks to their vigorous co-operation, the victory of justice is certain. Notwithstanding the sacrifices already endured by the Belgian nation, with a courage equalled only by its magnitude, a new trial is added to the present circumstances. "In order not to serve the plans for the invaders, it is important that the Belgian government should temporarily establish its seat in a place from which it can continue to wage its fight without respite for the rest of the war. At this moment these forces are operating in the direction of our southern frontier, where they are supported by the allies. Thanks to their vigorous co-operation, the victory of justice is certain. AERIAL SCOUTS PROVE VALUE.

ONE WORTH AS MUCH TO ARMY
AS CAVALRY DIVISION.

Few Movements of Any Importance by the Enemy Have Occurred Without Having Been Previously Reported by Aerial Scouts. Thus Preventing Possibility of Surprise.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

PARIS, Oct. 14.—The activity of German aeroplanes over Paris has brought up a general discussion of the value of these machines in warfare and recital of thrilling aerial duels between French and German machines.

One French corps commander is quoted as saying that in his opinion a single aeroplane is as valuable as a division of cavalry. Aeroplanes are of the greatest service in preventing surprise, and few important movements of troops have been made which have not been reported promptly by aerial scouts.

A daring encounter took place recently between a German monoplane and a French biplane during a critical moment in the execution of an important maneuver north of the River Oise. The German machine was seen sailing over the French lines just before a strong detachment of troops was to start on a movement to the north. For the success of this maneuver it was vital that this entry of the air be removed and a French biplane undertook the responsibility. The French machine gained an altitude greater than that of the German.

but even this advantage was not sufficient to drive the scout away. In a daring dive, in which he braved a heavy fire from the French lines, the German descended to a height of 1000 yards and skilfully avoiding the French machine, heading for the German lines. The Frenchman seemed to have the advantage in speed. For awhile the German was successful in keeping out of the reach of the Frenchman, but the biplane, continuing its flight at a considerable height, finally attained an advantageous position.

The there could be heard the quick and sharp reports of a machine gun on the French flyer. The monoplane floated for a few moments as if the pilot had lost control and then, fluttering like a wounded bird on the wing, the machine started an oblique flight downward, finally crashing to earth.

AMERICAN CONSUL TO LEAVE.

Women and Children also to be Given Safe Conduct Out of the City of Tientsin.

(BY PACIFIC CABLE.)

TOKIO, Oct. 14.—It was declared officially in Tokyo today that the American Consul at Tientsin, W. R. Peck, and a number of German and Chinese women and children are to leave Tientsin tomorrow. This move is in fulfillment of the arrangement recently concluded for the removal of all remaining non-combatants from the German position in Kiaochow.

An engagement between a German and a Japanese aeroplane took place over Tientsin yesterday. Neither aviator was hurt. The German machine rose to a height of 9000 feet and disappeared in the clouds.

OFFICIAL EXCHANGE OF THE BELGIANS.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Oct. 14, 10:30 p.m.—As soon as the President of the French republic was advised of the desire of the Belgian government to remove to Havre he telegraphed King Albert, offering him the hospitality of the French city and informing him that the sovereignty of the royal government would be assured there.

The King conveyed his thanks to President Poincaré, adding: "We await the hour of mutual victory with unshakable confidence. Fighting side by side for a just cause, our courage will never fail."

The Belgian Premier, Charles de Broqueville, sent a message to M. Viviani, the French Premier, expressing the gratitude of the Belgian government for the welcome accorded it by the French government.

"Belgium," he added, "which has sacrificed everything for the defense of honesty, honor and liberty, regrets nothing. She has the confidence arising from the knowledge of a duty accomplished and the certainty of the triumph of the allies' cause."

"The government of the republic is proud to extend its hospitality to the noble and valiant nation which is sacrificing everything for its honor and for duty, and which has rendered such signal service to a common cause. I am sure that the close union of the allied nations will insure the definite triumph of justice and right."

Premier Viviani replied: "The Belgian army, which is now standing at bay on the French frontier after more than two months fighting, feels honor and joy in the thought of reconquering its native land in close co-operation with the superb armies of the allies."

M. Millerand replied that the Belgian, English, Russian and French were "indissolubly united and will win because their will is superior to all trials."

SARAJEVO IN SIEGE.

Belgian of Turver held to Exist During Trial of Assassins of Late Archduke Ferdinand.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

ROME (via Paris) Oct. 14.—Dispatches received here by way of the frontier from Sarajevo, Bosnia, say that the town is virtually in a state of siege, owing to the circumstances surrounding the trial of Gavrio Princip, the assassin of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife, and Princip's twenty-one accomplices.

The men are charged with high treason. Terror reigns everywhere in Sarajevo. It is said the police have taken extraordinary precautions and the whole garrison is being kept in readiness for any emergency. According to law the trial is open to the public, but in reality the space reserved for the public is being entirely occupied by police agents in civilian clothes. Telegrams reports of the trial are prohibited, except those of the official agency.

BIG FACTS

Los Angeles:

In the past four years Los Angeles has increased in population from 319,000 to nearly 600,000 and has advanced in line of importance from 16th to 9th place.

Baker Shoe Stores:

In the past three years Baker's has increased its yearly sales over five hundred thousand dollars and has advanced in line of importance from 10th to 2nd place.

Note: While there are eight cities in the U. S. (ranging in population from 600,000 to 3,500,000) larger than Los Angeles—there is only one larger retail shoe concern than Baker's.

There's always some good reason for exceptional growth, whether it be in a city or a business.

The wonderful climate and the hundreds of other advantages possessed by Los Angeles and not found in other cities accounts for the remarkable growth of Los Angeles.

Just so, the wonderful shoe values, the exceptional range of good shoe styles, the sensible prices and the efficient and satisfactory service found at Baker's and not found in like quantity and quality in other shoe stores, account for the remarkable growth of the Baker Shoe Stores.

Our wonderful showing this fall of new, snappy shoe designs for men, women and children, moderately priced as always, will serve to strengthen our position as the leading retail shoe dealers in the West—the second largest retail shoe concern in the United States.

If YOU are not buying your shoes at Baker's you are not getting the greatest possible return for your shoe money.

TWENTY MINUTES
SOONER BY CUT

PACIFIC ELECTRIC FITTING SA
BERNARDINO NEARER TO
LOS ANGELES.

Dirty began to fly yesterday on the Pacific Electric's Lordsburg-North Pomona cut-off. This cut-off, when completed, will permit a reduction of twenty minutes in car schedules between here and stations on the Bernardino line east of North Pomona.

According to estimates of the Pacific Electric, the new line will save the cut-off cost $35,000 and will take less than two months to complete. It is one and one-half miles long. A portion being built by the Federal Electric's own forces, by the Pacific Electric and the Los Angeles and Long Beach Railroad. At present, all cars over the Los Bernardino through line are detoured around the cut-off at Long Beach, going to Pomona Junction, thence to North Pomona. This is five miles out of the direct line between the two points. It will save a line subject to congested traffic.

In connection with this prospective betterment of the Los Angeles and Pacific Electric filed an application with the State Railroad Commission yesterday for permission to put a new time card, cars on the Oak Knoll and Ambassador-San Gabriel lines will make nine additional round trips daily. The cut-off will save about 15 minutes normal time between cars from thirty to twenty minutes. The El Molino local service will also be improved.

ELK HILLS CASE UP IN JANUARY

PORTLAND JUDGE TO CONDUCT BIG LAND HEARING IN THIS CITY.

Word was received at the Federal Building yesterday that United States District Judge Robert S. Bean of Portland would begin the hearing of the argument in the famous Elk Hills case, the first week in January, 1919, in this city, and that all the time necessary would be devoted to it.

The case will be represented by E. J. Justice and Willis N. Mills, special assistant to the Attorney General, while Charles Levens, who is resident of the Southern Pacific Railroad, will represent the other side.

The hearing promises to be long drawn out, as there are about 15,000 pages of evidence to be gone over.

Fraud is charged by the government in securing the patent to the 20,000 Hulla country containing many thousand acres, in Kern county; that it is oil-bearing in character, and was known to be such when the Southern Pacific company secured the same by affidavits. The company not only denies that it is mineral in character, but in the course of the testimony of the Hulla wells, many prospecting had been done in the country that had commercial wells were now in operation. The testimony of the witnesses varies as to the geological significance concerning oil, those for the government insisting that it was oil land, and those for the company insisting that it was not.

PATROLMAN DISMISSED

"Sponser" Neglected Duty Is Stated by Inspector; Resignation Refused and Incompetency Set Up.

Patrolman Luthke, recently suspended for neglect of duty, has been notified that his resignation is not accepted, and that he is incompetent to perform his duties.

He reported that he was suspended from the force pending investigation of charges that he had "spooned" with Mrs. Lulu Honey, widow of No. 1347 Temple street, of his beat in Echo Park, was dismissed from the force.

He tendered his resignation yesterday afternoon and it was referred to Inspector Home, who recommended that the resignation be accepted at the same time the captain of the central division was requested to file a charge of incompetency against the subject.

Earlier in the morning the inspector reported the result of his investigation into the case. He decided that the subject was not guilty of the duty, which was to ride the park of "spooners," while he himself sat in a dark corner with Mrs. Honey for a couple of hours.

Patrolman No. 1347, who was a patrolman was also found guilty of slight insubordination for having "argued" with Sergt. Holloway, who was asked to take the subject to accompany him to the station.

Only Outlets for Wealthy Europeans
Is to Come Here, Hotel Man Says
so He Prepares.

"Thousands of wealthy Europeans will see America for the first time in the next few days," says S. Foster, proprietor of the Hotel San Diego in San Diego, declared yesterday at the American Tourist Association's luncheon here. "The war makes tourist travel from one country to another in Europe impossible. The railroads have been confiscated for military use and commercial travel is unworkable."

"It cannot be expected that the millionaires of Europe are going to stay at home the whole year through. The only outlet for them is here. There is every indication that they will come in great numbers."

Mr. Porter has returned from a two-month stay in Europe. During his absence he visited the tourist departments of the transcontinental railroads, the tourist agencies and the

"I spent considerable time in the East trying to learn if there are indications of heavy travel toward the West Coast," he said.

"The booking agencies say that there are swamped with inquiries and that the applications for transportation facilities are expected to date back to the heavy travel will begin about December 15 and last for one year. There has been an average of 1,000,000 passengers from America to Europe annually. It appears that now at least one-half of these travelers will come to California."

LOSES DAMAGE VERDICT.

Supreme Court Decides in Favor of Southern Pacific—Other Cases on Appeal.

The Supreme Court has reversed the judgment of the Superior Court in refusing a new trial in the action brought by August Hoffman against Southern Pacific.

Hoffman used the company for damages on account of the alleged negligence of its employees and the resulting liability of the company set aside by the action of the Supreme Court.

Hoffman was an employee of the Union Hardware and Metal Company, injured at Tunnel Station by the premature explosion of dynamite caused by a car of the railway backing onto another push car loaded with the explosive.

In the cases of the city of Glendale against the Title Guaranty and Trust Company, and the City of Glendale against the Miradera Water Company, both petitions for writs of mandamus were by order of the Supreme Court ordered to the foot of the calendar for argument at the session of the court in Los Angeles, next week.

CHAMBER REPORT INDICATES COMPANIES WON'T HELP.

To Bring About Desired Condition
Wilmington Chamber Secretary
Recommends Action Be Dropped
Now Until Early in 1916 when Pacific States Franchise Expires.

That the Home and Pacific States telephone companies will resist any effort at consolidation or elimination of either system, and thus create a one-phone system, is clearly indicated in the report of ex-Senator Henry E. Carter, secretary of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, to that body. The report, which has been adopted by the Wilmington chamber, recommends that no action be taken until the expiration of the Pacific states franchise in 1916.

The Chamber of Commerce, at Senator Carter's suggestion, has sent a request to the Board of Public Utilities that a franchise to expire when the Pacific franchise shall expire, be granted to the Home company, if any franchise is granted. The Wilmington chamber has withdrawn its opposition to the franchise application of the Home company, which has been before the utilities body for several weeks.

Senator Carter conferred with Railroad Commissioner Edgerton and representatives of the two companies. The telephone company, he states in his report, refused to commit themselves, except to say their companies will not take the initiative. "I am clearly of the opinion that a formal application to the Railroad Commission would be futile," says Senator Carter's report, "and that it is inadvisable to further proceed along this line. Owing to the fact that the Pacific franchise shall expire, the country and in the whole city of Los Angeles in particular, and the further fact that the franchise of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company will expire early in 1916, this problem will undoubtedly be worked out before that time, and to me it would seem best for this chamber to await that result."

"In conclusion it is my opinion, aside from the legal aspects of the case, that it is very questionable whether it is advisable even if it could be done, to destroy competition and give one company the exclusive field. "While the Railroad Commission, or the Board of Public Utilities may regulate rates of such a company and perhaps compel the use of up-to-date and modern appliances, there are many things connected with usage that cannot be regulated. From past experience it is not unreasonable to suppose that a company, secure in its position and without fear of competition, will try to economize in its service, as to enlarge dividends, even to the disadvantage and inconvenience of its patrons."

Still, they seized the psychological moment, these revolutionists. And the guy who is a good judge of timeliness, stands to win. Everybody of consequence is too busy worrying about the European situation to bother about the deeds or misdeeds of the Mexicans.

The intercession of her husband saved Mrs. Elsie Vier from a jail sentence for violation of the rooming-house ordinance yesterday.

"Judge, I wish her to come home to me and the baby," Mr. Vier, a mechanic, pleaded.

"You have a good husband, madam; if you will go with him I will suspend sentence," Police Judge Chambers said.

The two left court together.

RUSHING TO COMPLETE GREAT ESPEE STATION.

SUFFICIENT progress has been made upon the modern new passenger station which the Southern Pacific is erecting on the site of the old Arcade depot at the foot of Fifth street to make it certain that the building will be in use even before the main hosts of the 1915 visitors to the Pacific Coast begin to arrive. The early arrivals among the fall colonists may even now see enough of the structure to convince them that Los Angeles at last boasts a depot somewhat commensurate in size and architectural dignity with the city's population and its importance on the map.

The new terminal now presents almost the appearance of a completed building, in so far as exterior walls are concerned, although the mass of debris, such as always collects around large construction projects, is yet to be cleared away. Practically all of the brick and terra cotta work has been finished. That part of the exterior wall surface that is to be plastered will soon be given a facing of white cement. Meanwhile progress is being made in the interior finishing.

The depot with its equipment will represent an investment by the Southern Pacific Railway Company of approximately $750,000. The station building itself will be two stories in height, 600 feet in length and 110 feet deep. Contracts were let a few days ago for the steel frame "umbrella shed" that are to shelter the platform and the loading and unloading of passengers and baggage. An order has also been placed for a gigantic ornamental iron marquee 220 feet long and thirty feet wide, for the protection of the main entrance opening onto Fifth street.

The station, which was planned by Architects Parkinson and Bergstrom of this city, follows the style of the Italian Renaissance. The elevated central portion of the building, with its five great arches and row of double columns, is especially striking. The Alameda Mill Company has the contract.

YOUNG GIRL IS BRIDE OF DIVORCED CLUBMAN.

WHILE her school chums and many socially prominent persons looked on, Miss Eugenia Townsend, 18 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Townsend of San Diego, became the bride in the southern city yesterday of Marion R. Gray, clubman and business man of this city.

The groom was formerly the husband of Mrs. Mabel Miles Gray, daughter of J. H. Miles of Westmoreland place and a figure in Los Angeles society. The Grays were divorced about a year ago. Just a tinge of mystery attached to the ceremony of yesterday because the marriage license was made out to "Marion R. Gray," though invitations and newspaper announcements bore the name "Marion R. Gray."

The wedding yesterday took place at the home of the bride's parents, No. 3171 Kalmia street, San Diego.

IT WOULD CROWD OUT WORKERS THEMSELVES.

THE Commercial and Industrial League, from its offices in the Citizens National Bank building, has issued a general warning to all the employees of the members of the league, comprising mercantile houses, building trades, restaurant, brick yards and others, against the probable effects of the passage of Amendment No. 2, the so-called universal eight-hour law, at the polls November 2.

The warning refers only in brief terms to the threatened paralysis of manufacturing, the citrus industry, farming, and the multitude of miscellaneous industries affected, but dwells upon the effect on the workers themselves.

"By passing this law you will be conspiring to overcrowd nearly every one of your trades and occupations," the declaration of the employers, "for, coincident with the announcement that an eight-hour day is compulsory in California, the news that there is room for an army of workers one-third the size of that already here, and so will all the work your unions and organizations have done to keep out superfluous labor be undone.

"Those of you who are buying your homes will soon find that you are being underbid on your wages by the members of the industrial army which will flock here from everywhere, and you will either have smaller amounts to pay out your equities, or, what is more likely, nothing at all.

"You will not be able to go into the orchards or on the farms if you are crowded from your present employment, because the citrus industry cannot stand the imposition of this law

DEATH STALKS ON SEVENTH STREET.

BOY KILLED, ANOTHER FATALLY HURT AT SAME HOUR BY AUTOMOBILES.

A Jinx rode on East Seventh street yesterday. A 14-year-old boy was instantly killed under the wheels of an oil-tank truck at South Rio street, and not ten minutes later, a few blocks away, a 9-year-old boy was fatally hurt, also in an automobile accident.

Lacy McNery, 14, who lived at No. 643 South Rio street, was the first victim. He was riding a bicycle east on Seventh street and rode up to the rear of an express motor wagon driven by T. E. Cary of No. 2431 East Fourth street, and held to it as it sped across the bridge. At South Rio street the express wagon swung out to pass an oil-tank machine owned by the Amalgamated Oil Company and driven by Charles E. Huston of No. 1441 South Flower street.

As the two machines were even with each other young Lacy's bicycle slid from under him and he was thrown between the front and rear wheels of the tank truck. The rear wheels passed over his head. Each driver said he did not know of the accident until eyewitnesses flagged him. The lad was instantly killed and left in the road, where he lay until Driver Canto of the police ambulance took him away.

Juan Morello, 9 years old, who lives at Atlantic and Mateo streets, was given a few pennies to go to the drug store at Mateo street for candy. He received the candy and started to run home. A machine driven by John Brand swept around the corner, caught the boy and dragged him several machine lengths before the car was brought to a stop. Juan was carried into the drug store he had just quitted. Later, at the Receiving Hospital, it was found he suffered a basal fracture of the skull.

INTERESTING Operations Told of at Annual Meeting of the Southern California Homeopathic Medical Society in this City—Eleven Hundred Pieces in One Case.

Several cases of unusual scientific interest were presented by Dr. Jessie Simpson, member of the staff at the State Hospital at Patton, when the subject, "Foreign Bodies in the Stomach," was under discussion yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of the Southern California Homeopathic Medical Society, a collection of hardware consisting of 1100 pieces, including pins, safety pins, hair pins, needles, nails, screws, bits of metal and buttons, were removed from the stomach of an insane patient at the hospital. The mass was nine inches long, three inches wide and two inches thick, and formed a complete cast of the interior of the stomach.

"This accumulation was removed with a successful surgical operation," Dr. Simpson explained. "The patient, who is a woman, 33 years of age, apparently has recovered completely, and is now industriously endeavoring to accumulate another 'hair ball'."

BARACA-PHILATHEA CONVENTION HERE.

NATIONAL OFFICERS SELECT THIS CITY FOR WORLD-WIDE MEETING.

Los Angeles has secured another international convention for 1915. Word was received from New York yesterday that the national officers of the World-Wide Baraca-Philathea Union, following sentiment developed at this year's convention in Waco, Tex., had decided upon Los Angeles as the convention city for next year. More than 2000 delegates gathered at Waco, and it is fair to say that, with the two great expositions at the magnets, the number will be a least double next year. The sessions of the convention cover five days, one of which will be devoted to free entertainment of the delegates, that they may all go away with an adequate idea of the attractions of the city.

About eighteen years ago the Baraca classes, organized among boys in Sunday-schools, and the Philathea classes, among girls, united in forming the joint national organization. The movement has spread throughout the nation and into foreign lands, and there are now over 12,000 classes.

THE Chickering FLEXOTONE SOLOIST PLAYER

With Its Marvelous Flexible Expression Control

THE FLEXOTONE-SOLOIST contains many features which are a radical departure from hitherto accepted standards of Player construction. It is in fact two players in one, being equipped with two complete and distinct forms of expression control. The advantages of this dual expression control are manifest. What may not be successfully accomplished by one means of control may be executed with the utmost facility by the other. In other words, the Flexotone-Soloist provides a means by which every musical effort, no matter how difficult or complicated, may be executed with the utmost ease by anyone and with perfect artistry.

In producing a player mechanism the two most essential considerations are the finding of a means whereby the most complicated musical effects may be executed and at the same time be so simple of manipulation as to be readily available for the novice. The solution of this problem has been fully worked out in the Flexotone-Soloist.

You are cordially invited to call and inspect this marvelous Player Piano.

Coast-to-Coast Line Sixty Years Old Suspended.

Sudden & Christenson Fleet Through the Canal.

By a curious coincidence, announcement of two important additions to Pacific Coast steamship traffic was made simultaneously yesterday with the death-knell of the Coast's oldest steamship line. The additions are the turbine Old Colony, a vessel bigger than the Harvard or Yale, reported as to ply between this city and San Francisco, and the coming of the Sudden & Christenson boats to ply between Atlantic and Pacific ports.

At the same time shippers received notice from Freight Traffic Manager Connor of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company that its San Francisco-New York service, via Panama, will be withdrawn with the docking of the steamer Ancon at San Francisco the 24th inst.

"We regret to advise you," reads the circular, "that, after sixty-odd years, during which this company has handled traffic between San Francisco and New York, via Panama, the mandatory provisions of the Panama Canal Act do not permit us to continue our service of moving freight between the Pacific and Atlantic ports of the United States."

Significantly, the Ancon, whose wash will be the last of any Pacific Mail boats to froth the water-trail of the Argonauts, was the very vessel that, under charter to the government, made the initial commercial passage of the big ditch, in either direction, carrying Col. Goethals and other Canal Zone officials on the last inspection trip before the big locks were dedicated to the uses of the world's shipping.

Though the Pacific Mail will continue its Mexican and Central and South American service, an epoch closes with the withdrawal of its coast-to-coast service. Almost coincident with the discovery of gold in this State, a small coterie of shipping

TORID BOARD OF DISTURBERS.

Briggs and Manning would Clear the Air.

Supervisor Fight Takes on New Interest.

"Drys" Swear the City is Only Half "Wet."

The rout of the Earl-Norton forces on the County Board of Supervisors at the appointment of A. J. Hill as County Counsel, has attracted attention to the Supervisor situation in the light of the coming election. The opponents of the Earl-Norton brand of disturbance are redoubting their efforts to see that at least one vacillating disturber is eliminated from the board and that no others be added.

In the First District, where Supervisor Manning has served the people for eight years, the voters will make a choice on November 3 between the incumbent and J. J. Hamilton, a professional trouble-maker from Iowa, whose activities in California since his residence here have been divided between tinkering with criminal law and twisting the habits of his neighbors to conform to the privations he imposes upon himself.

Supervisor Manning has twice won the commendation of his constituents by being elected. He has been an implacable foe of insincerity and petty politics on the Board of Supervisors, and has stood for the best interests of his district and his county during his eight years of service. At the recent primary election, Supervisor Manning was nominated by a lead of more than 1000 votes over his nearest competitor in a field of nine candidates.

He is a Republican in State and national politics, but is registered as a non-partisan, owing to the non-partisan character of the office he holds. His friends in the First District believe he will be re-elected. If the issue is closely drawn between the records of Supervisor Manning and Disturber Hamilton, there will be no doubt of the re-election of the incumbent. Hamilton is supported by the Earl forces and Supervisor Norton is campaigning for him.

BRIGGS A WINNER.
Despite the united opposition of the disciples of unrest in the Third Supervisor District, Sidney L. Briggs, a prominent real estate dealer, looks at the likely choice of the people on November 3. Mr. Briggs received a handsome vote at the primary election, and will be elected over Supervisor Woodley, the incumbent.

Mr. Woodley is asking the people of the district to "re-elect" him, as a matter of fact, he never was elected. Having been a voter for the Johnson programme at Sacramento during the time when rewards were pledged for "party" service, Mr. Woodley was appointed Supervisor of the Third District in place of S. A. Butler, who resigned.

Since his tenure of the appointive position, Supervisor Woodley stood with Supervisor Norton and the Earl-Lesser forces upon every important test, the latest notable example having been the vote against County Counsel Hill.

Mr. Briggs is being supported by prominent business men in the district, is committed to a policy of sanity, improvement, progress in development of the county and honest administration.

TO WORK FOR BRIGGS.
At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Taxpayers' and Assessment Association last night in the investment building, a campaign was inaugurated in behalf of Mr. Briggs. The association was formed Tuesday when seventy-five real estate men, all members of the Los Angeles Real Estate Board, were invited to luncheon at the Clark Hotel by Oscar E. Parish and to discuss the election of the local political situation. Addresses were made by W. W. Mines, Philip D. Wilson, Gilbert S. Wright, Elmer E. Cole, William A. Roy and others, and it was declared that a change in the present methods of levying taxes and spreading expenses in this county was desirable.

Because of this situation, an organization was perfected and an endorsement extended to Mr. Briggs as a candidate for Supervisor in the largest and wealthiest district of the city and county. The Third District includes practically all of the downtown business district west of Main and North of Ninth streets; all of the Wilshire, Westlake and Hollywood residential sections, and that district west of the city limits where many boulevard and stately drain improvements are either under way or contemplated.

OFFICERS ELECTED.
The new organization elected the following officers: President Elmer E. Cole; vice-president, G. C. Tatum; secretary, Warren McIntire; and the following chairmen: Executive Committee, Elmer E. Cole; Campaign and Organization Committee, Oscar E. Parish; Finance Committee, W. H. Akin; Finance, Walter Brown; Publicity, Roy C. Seely; Automobiles, H. G. Hamilton.

The Executive Committee decided last night to issue personal letters to friends and to prepare literature setting forth the present taxation conditions and urging the election of Briggs to the Board of Supervisors. It will organize a club in every precinct of the Third District and will see, on election day, that the polls are manned. It will have a large number of automobiles that are to take voters to the polling booths. The work of the Taxpayers' and Assessment Association will be intensified until the last vote has been counted.

SAN DIEGO FOR FREDERICKS.
That San Diego county will give Capt. Fredericks, Republican nominee for Governor, a majority of not less than 10,000 votes, is the prediction of E. L. Davin of San Diego. Davin is president of the Young Republican League of California.

"The Young Republican League is actively engaged in furthering the campaign of Capt. Fredericks, Joseph R. Knowland and other Republican candidates," said Davin yesterday. "Conditions all through Southern California are excellent for a sweeping Republican victory in November. It is my prediction that Capt. Fredericks will receive a plurality of not less than 15,000 votes in the State and the State are decidedly against the present administration. They particularly resent Johnson's plea for non-partisanship. When Johnson was in San Diego a short time ago he told the people there that if he was re-

There is no better time to save than NOW. In fact, it is most necessary that you should save NOW. The lesson you will have learned is one of the most valuable financial lessons of life. The freedom from worry and the independence that ready money brings is well worth striving for.

It is not so difficult to learn to save as you have been told. It chiefly requires determination and a definite plan. You supply the determination and we will supply the PLAN. And we will pay you 6 per cent. interest, compounded semi-annually, on the money you set aside each month.

Ford at Popoma.
That the voters of Popoma and vicinity will give him a handsome majority, was the assurance of W. J. Ford, nominee for District Attorney, last night at an enthusiastic meeting. In his address Ford explained the importance of having an experienced incumbent in that office. In the afternoon he addressed a large meeting held in Pasadena under the auspices of the Pasadena Women's Republican League. Many influential women, who confessed to having voted for another candidate in the primary, promised Ford they would use every effort to secure his election. This morning he will address the teachers of the Arroyo High School, besides a large number of the parents of the pupils, who have been invited to the occasion. In the afternoon he will address the Republican Women's League, where Mrs. Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith will discuss constitutional amendments.

Every branch of the Republican League in Los Angeles county will be represented Friday night at the Blanchard Hall mass meeting at which Joseph R. Knowland, Republican nominee for the United States Senate, will be the chief speaker. The other speakers of the evening will be Frank P. Flint, former United States Senator from California. Preceding the meeting, which will be called to order at 8 o'clock, there will be an automobile parade, in which many of the Republican candidates will appear. The parade will start from in front of the California building, where the league headquarters are located, and traverse the downtown section. The league is sending to all its members a sample straight Republican ticket as a guide for November 3. Judicial nominees are included in the list.

Will Support Osborne.
Prospects of a record-breaking Republican vote at the harbor November 3 were found yesterday by Capt. E. Z. Osborne on visiting San Pedro. Capt. Osborne, a Republican nominee for Congress in the Tenth District, Thursday night, October 29, an evening meeting in Pasadena. Friday, October 30, and a night meeting in Hollywood, October 31. In all those three days, Capt. Fredericks will speak in the districts of the county which he has not yet visited.

Meetings for Fredericks.
Monster meetings are being arranged for Capt. Fredericks to be held after his arrival in Los Angeles from his northern trip on Thursday morning, October 29. Three of these meetings have been tentatively decided upon by the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee, an evening meeting in Los Angeles, Thursday night, October 29, an evening meeting in Pasadena, Friday, October 30, and a night meeting in Hollywood, October 31. In all those three days, Capt. Fredericks will speak in the districts of the county which he has not yet visited.

SERAPHS SWAMP MISSION OUTFIT.

Angels Got Dizzy Running Around.

Bill Abstein is the Heavy Sticker.

With Tom Hughes a Close Second.

(BY HERBERT WEBB—SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Los Angeles gamboled on the green with the Mission Wolves today and when they were finished with the bombardment there was not enough left of the Mission crew for the wreckers to have a job. The tally sheet at the end when the remains of Pitchers Kramer and Gregory were carted away read:
Los Angeles, 15 runs, 14 hits and no errors.
Mission, 1 run, 5 hits, 4 errors.

Every man jack on the southern aggregation made the circuit at least once during the afternoon save for Outfielder Harper, and he has the legitimate excuse of not having been in the game for more than a portion of the time.

It is useless to recapitulate the tallies themselves for that would be an endless task. Suffice to say that the Wolves started by booting the ball over the lot—four errors in one inning being their record. Thereafter their pitchers were bunched hard. The Angels registered three triples and two doubles.

Bill Abstein started with a double and three singles. Long Tom Hughes was not far behind with a triple, double and single.

Hughes has now won twenty-three games for the Angels and there is a good chance for the Los Angeles twirler to grab the automobile Henry Barry has offered to anyone of his twirlers who can win twenty-five games for the season.

The season is closing rapidly, but there are still enough games remaining for Hughes to connect. He held the Missionites to six hits and they were lucky to put over their run in the first inning.

BEAR FRESHMEN MEET NEVADA IN BIG GAME.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Oct. 11.—In less than a week the big game of the freshman season will be held. On October 17 a trainload of neophytes from Reno will invade the campus with the Bears by squad which is to play the final match. Coach Jack Glasscock, '33, cheerfully admits that he thinks the freshmen of his alma mater are in for an awful drubbing. The conclusive defeat of the crack Olympic Club of last Saturday gives weight to his words.

NEVADA LIGHT AND FAST.

The Barebrush fifteen will be lighter than the freshman fifteen. Olympic Club players think that what the Nevadans lack in weight they make up in speed. McGovern is the one husky front-rank man with whom the "O" players found the most trouble. They credit him with being the moving spirit of the scrum. At lock is another good man. Howard had some rugged experience at California and he is now using his ability and experience in holding the scrum together.

Capt. McPhail is said to be the dangerous man of the back field. He holds down right wing and is a strong offensive player. The other backs are light, but fast.

Reports have it that the Nevadans are particularly good on passing from line-outs back to the wings. McGovern is credited with a kicking stunt. The ball is held above the ground and he kicks from a kicking stance.

THE HUSKY "BABIES."

The freshman team is husky this year. The babes have weight and plenty of fight. In the forwards division they are particularly good. The scrum has in it an assortment of 200-pounders that makes it a veritable battering ram. Liversedge, Bender and Bruene have been and their back field finish in dribbling, their weight gives a heave to the scrum that will worry the lighter Nevada men.

Back of the scrum things are well settled except on the wings. Harper has a firm grasp on the half-back's job. At first five-eighths Hicks seems to be the logical man. Brooks holds his place at second-five in varsity style. Thomas makes the pivot man at center-three.

These men are all of good weight. Brooks is the heaviest and the best of the quartette. Hicks follows closely behind Brooks in the order of merit. The players for the wing three-quarter positions are still uncertain. Richardson and Sarthou have been given chances in several of the early games, but Clepton and Hunt are worthy contenders for the same positions.

Longbeiser has been last defense man until the last two weeks. He is now troubled with an arm infection which may cost him the place. Walsh of Oakland is a strong bidder for Lutenheiser is out.

THE ODDS.

Olympic Club men are of the opinion that the teams are closely matched. California has a slight advantage in weight, they say, but the Nevadans are fast. The Babes will have the advantage in playing on their own field against a team which has traveled hundreds of miles to play. Weight, home grounds and freshmen odds are to be counted as a boost to freshmen odds.

How It Looks From The Bleachers

Coach Pritchard of Manual Arts sent his second team down to Lincoln yesterday afternoon and his scrubs succeeded in handling a 14-to-6 licking to the Ball-splitters. The latter put up a noble fight and with the score 14 to 6 against them, rallied and showed over a try before the whistle tooted.

Varsity Works.

Coach Ralph Glass of U.S.C. put his varsity through a red-hot workout against the L.A.C. warriors on Harvard Field last night. The way the Trojans walked through Napoleon d'Aule's blue-shirted heavyweights was a sight to behold. There was no regular kick-off or anything of the kind, but the clubmen were absolutely unable to cope with the Trojans of U.S.C., while the red-shirted students had no trouble in stopping anything that Nap was able to launch against them.

Everest Stars.

Young Len Livermore, the Monde beauty who runs for Lund at left half on the Trojan varsity, is a go-get-'em kid. He doesn't know so very much about the game as yet, but once he gets the feel of the pigskin under his wing, he just focuses his eyes on the goal line and steps on the throttle. With Lund on the sick list as the result of tripping a husky from Nevada with his neck, Len is filling in very neatly.

Getting Famous.

Several local young men are carrying niches in the hall of fame for themselves up at Stanford and California. This year's crop of High School phenoms was thought to be rather sparse, but nearly every man who showed class on the local teams last year is getting famous on the freshman teams up north. Dutch Henner, Neuner, Grieve and Earl are charter members of the Stanford baby fifteen, with Clemmer Johnson adorning the sideline because of his arm ankle. Brooks is the star of the California babes and Harper is shining at half.

Craig a Corner.

Big Jerry Craig of U.S.C. is developing into a humdinger of a tackle. For some reason or other Craig never set the river on fire as a Rugby player, but this seems to be just the game to bring out all of his ability. He is the only line-plunger of any consequence on the U.S.C. varsity and he handicaps himself in this particular line of endeavor by starting his backs from a point about as far back as the line of scrimmage as the center

OAKLAND, Oct. 14.—Portland drew a notch near the 14th pennant today by winning both games of a double-header from Oakland. The first game was decided by a 4-to-1 score, the Oaks saving a shut-out in the last of the ninth inning. Although they out-hit the Portland team eleven to nine, the second game was a walkaway for scoring their lone tally in the final inning. The scores:

JOHNNY SCHIFF TAKEN IN ENGLAND FOR GERMAN SPY.

HE Kaiser is now in pretty bad with Johnny Schiff, the tow-headed featherweight who is now boxing in London.

By reason of his German name, Johnny was accused of being a spy, and was detained by the English of Scotland. Whereupon Johnny came back at the British Foreign Office by proving that his r-r-r-real name is not Johnny Schiff at all, but Porter Newman.

He was released, but took the precaution to renounce all friendship for the Kaiser. Henceforth, in England at least, he boxes under the name of Porter Newman. His letters, telling of the adventure, have just arrived in Los Angeles.

Johnny got the name of Schiff in a peculiar way. While still a little boy, he went out into the world seeking adventure and achievement. After going to sea as a cabin boy, he wound up in a San Francisco cafe, selling cigars. His employers were a firm named Schiff, and on his cap was embroidered the firm name. The customers did not know his name, so when they wanted him, they hollered "Hey, there, Schiff." The name thereafter stuck.

ATHLETICS DON'T RECEIVE WELCOME.

ONLY A FEW LOYAL FANS WERE AT THE STATION TO MEET THEM.

(BY A. T. NIGHT WIRE.)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Only a handful of loyal fans were at the railway station to greet the former world's champions when the latter arrived today from Boston, where they had lost their title to the Braves.

There was a long line of disappointed ticket holders, however, at the department store where the admissions for the third game that would have been played had the Athletics succeeded in taking one game, were received. More than $14,000 was refunded by the club's management, but many speculators had purchased tickets at a premium until the fourth of Tuesday's performance, somewhat decreasing the profits they had made on tickets for the games played.

Joseph Leslie Bush, who pitched on Monday for the Athletics, married shortly after his return. Miss Sylvia E. McMahon of Bordentown, N. J., was the bride. The ceremony was performed at St. Columba's Roman Catholic Church. Bush and his bride will leave for Chicago tomorrow, where they will join the team for the remainder of the season.

Three witnesses of alleged grafting on the part of the Athletics were heard by the committee which is investigating the charges. They told of seeing uniformed police receiving money from persons anxious to secure preferred places in the line of ticket purchasers.

POMONA HIGH PLAYS THE L.A.A.C. MEN SATURDAY.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

POMONA, Oct. 14.—Arrangements have been made by the management of the Pomona High School football team for a game on the local campus on Saturday with the team from the Los Angeles Athletic Club, composed of former college and university players.

This should prove an interesting contest, as the local rugger has not been scored against in the three games already played this season, the "go" with Hollywood High School last Saturday afternoon having been won by Pomona, 27 to 0. Preliminary to the main event the High School second team will go up against the Corona team on the Pearl-street campus.

The season of the Citrus Belt League comprising Pomona, Riverside, Redlands and San Bernardino will open on Saturday, October 24, each team playing but four games. The season is to be little reason why the local Cardinals should not easily win the Citrus Belt championship.

EARLE COOPER PROMISES REAL SPEED AT CORONA.

EIGHTY miles an hour is the speed promised by Earle Cooper when he drives in the Corona road race. This estimate was made yesterday after Cooper had driven his Stutz No. 8 around the course. The grand boulevard, according to the winner of the first Corona race, is in better condition than it ever was before.

The fact that a new world's record will be established on Thanksgiving Day Cooper is satisfied. All that is necessary is to drive wide open and then collect the $5000 for first money.

Those who saw Cooper drive yesterday realized that he knows the course. His car held the road perfectly. The course does not seem to be hard on tires.

He is the man and pressed Earle Cooper. Twice his car was almost wrecked, but in spite of this Klein kept going and he is now in place. Now he is satisfied that he can make a great showing at Corona.

WORLD CHAMPIONS GET THEIR MONEY.

JOHNNY EVERS GOT A FORTUNE FOR SIX MONTHS' LABOR.

(BY A. T. NIGHT WIRE.)
BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The Braves, world's baseball champions, as a result of the sensational series with the Philadelphia Athletics which closed here yesterday, were given a banquet and reception tonight by Mayor Curley. Praise for their achievement was sounded by various speakers and modest acknowledgment was made by Manager George T. Stallings and several of the players.

After the banquet many of the Braves left immediately for their home cities. They were each given checks for $1,000 for their season's work. To most of them this meant about $500 for their season's work. Capt. Johnny Evers found the season a big one financially, his income the past six months having been more than $40,000, including a bonus of $25,000 for his signature to a contract, $10,000 in salary, a $2000 bonus for finishing in first place, and his world's series receipts.

The winter will be spent quietly by most of the players. Several vaudeville agents were at Fenway Park today endeavoring to sign up some of the stars, but it is understood that none was successful.

"Rabbit" Maranville, who was on the stage last winter, may return this year.

AT THE STAGE DOOR

The new Gaiety people, imported by Sam Rork, are rehearsing "The Red Widow" madly, day and night, over at the Majestic, in order to have the musical comedy ready for presentation at the Morocco a week from Monday, as "Let's Get Married" has book-ings for a Coast voyage during the coming months.

Grace Edmunds, who made her first big hit in "Oh, Oh, Delphines" last winter in New York, is to play the starring role.

Miss Edmunds arrived only last Saturday, and tells a wistful tale of the depression in New York theatrical circles due to the war.

"There are hundreds of European actors in New York," she said yesterday, "willing to work for any money they can get. This is especially true of vaudeville acts."

"The New York managers are almost afraid to venture in anything new. You western people have no idea of the way the far eastern people feel about the war. Crowds block traffic in order to read the bulletin boards in New York City. People are holding on to their money; are not parting with it for amusement."

Miss Edmunds de Vois, the beautiful girl who will have the part of the dancer in "The Red Widow," spent last year in Europe, staying in Rome for six months, where she came near becoming a nun!

"My sister and I dwell with the nuns in a convent, where I have a cousin, and the life and traditions were so ideally suited to the recluses' life, the work they do among the poor and picturesquely Italian so wonderful, that I felt as if I never could go back to the stage."

Nevertheless, notwithstanding which, Miss De Vois is rehearsing every morning at 6 o'clock to practice her dancing stunts before going to rehearsal.

William C. de Mille, author of "The Woman," "Strongheart" and other successful dramas, who is assisting his brother, Cecil de Mille, in the staging of the Lasky playhouse, has just finished a vaudeville comedy sketch, which will be produced at Hammerstein's in New York this fall.

Dustin Farnum is to return to the Lasky Film Company next month to play the lead in his biggest stage success, "Cameo Kirby," which has been made into a photoplay by the De Mille.

Fred Follette of New York is to be the new manager of Loew's Empress Theatre. When the local Empress was changed from the Sullivan & Connolly property to the great circuit of houses under the ownership of Marcus Loew, George P. Fish of Cincinnati came to Los Angeles to start the new house on its way. Mr. Fish's work has been successfully accomplished, and he will return to the East to put some of the other Loew houses on the stage.

Mr. Follette will take the office chair at the Empress next Monday.

John Lubin, Loew's western manager, is in the city looking over the vaudeville situation in general and a site for the new Loew's Empress in particular. He says this is the promised land as regards vaudeville.

Net Goodwin, in "Never Say Die," is booked for forty-eight weeks in the West.

No. "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is not a moving-picture drama. Nor a musical comedy. Nor a slapstick comedy. Nor a white-slave detective play. Nor a cigar. Nor a street. Nor a new brand of safety razor. Nor a cocktail. It's the name of a very charming play at the Mason this week.

This is on behalf of the ticket seller, who claims that people come to the box office and ask how many reels the piece is shown in or whether the show girls are pretty or not.

Miss Isabelle Lowe, June in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" at the Mason, knows the Cumberland Mountain people like a book. She played with them as a child, and when she was to play the part of June went back to refresh her memory.

"I hadn't seen the last of my friends," she says, "when my visit was finished. They had heard all about Mr. Walter's production, and wanted to see it, though there were few in the community who had ever been inside a regular theater in their lives. When we reached Bluefield, W. Va., we found them. Or they found us, rather. They had come 100 miles in a special train to see the show, and they flooded the town. The theater was small, and practically every seat was sold before the mountaineers reached town. They all but stormed the theater and offered unheard-of prices for seats."

"And in Knoxville, they came again. I have given them a little reception, and I have always been proud of some of the things they told me about my playing of June."

Sam Dandy of the Gaiety company is an amateur baseball scout, and has sent his friend, Johnny McDrew, the names of Ethel of the Los Angeles team and Bancroft of the Portland. With what result remains to be seen.

There have been a lot of inquiries at the Mason regarding the Photo-players' Club benefit, in which film favorites will give a programme, October 20 and 21.

Following is a part of the programme: Kathryn Williams, Charles Clark, Wheeler Oakman and Guy Oetger of the Selig in a sketch, "Discover-

The Beauty Show.

A Fine Idea.

On his way to the center of the Los Angeles National Forest with the Rex company, Millard K. Wilson routed a deer from the underbrush. It was out of the season, and the actor did not dare kill it. But he picked up a rock and threw it, striking the deer on the head, knocking it down and turning the crank in on as the sun obligingly remained above board.

The great Thomas H. Ince deigned to turn the crank of a motion-picture camera the other evening at sunset. He needed a sunset in his business, and there wasn't anybody to catch that particular one, so Mr. Ince edited the machine, climbed alone to the ridge adjacent to the studios, and turned the crank in on as the sun obligingly remained above board.

During their stay in the heart of the Sierras with the Rex company, Millard K. Wilson, Milton Moore and Tom Ferman bought relinquishments of three adjoining hunting preserves of twenty acres each, where they expect to spend a considerable portion of their time in hunting and fishing.

At the New York Motion Picture Corporation's studios at Santa Monica, Charles Ray is taking the lead in a Mexican war story, "A Young Rebel." He is supported by Jack Nelson and Edith Markey.

At the Reliance studio, F. A. Keiser is producing "His Responsibility," a two-reeler by the prolific Russell E. Smith, with Irene Hunt in the lead and Ralph Lewis, Spottiswoode, Allen, Nestle Perry and W. E. Lawrence in the cast.

Very Cocky.

The local boys now claim they have the ideal grip of the world's most famous player. Last year the local team and the Santa Ana played a 0-0 tie game. Last week Santa Ana lost to the U.S.C. prep by a 20-0 score but they were outweighed. A good game is promised Saturday.

Will Saliers who played left guard in the local eleven against Chaffee last Saturday is suffering from an injured arm and will probably not be able to play next Saturday. Will Gerber for full-back to replace Engebretson, who cannot play again this season, and Kirk Potter for left guard are being tried by Coach Price.

Dr. Volk is coaching the line as the guards and tackles need strengthening. These are Davidson, Fox, Potter and Spott. Coach Price is looking after the back field. In the scrimmaging Frank Mallette barred out the new rule is being used in the second squad and gives the first squad some splendid practice.

E. A. Venetta of Otterbin, Ind., owner of William (2-0), has signed a contract to show his famous pouncing stallion on a Middle West vaudeville circuit for a period of ten weeks, beginning October 15 at Milwaukee. He will be the first harness horse ever to appear before the footlights.

ANNANDALE CLUB VISITED BY FLYERS FROM SAN DIEGO.

The links at the Annandale Country Club were the scene of unusual excitement yesterday when two airships arrived overhead and alighted on the course.

They proved to be travelers from San Diego, one a Glen Martin and the other a Burgess aeroplane, piloted by two army lieutenants.

The Glen Martin made the journey in one hour, fifty minutes. It was steered by Lieut. Tallaferro, who had as passenger Lieut. Sutton.

The Burgess made the journey in two hours, twenty minutes, and was steered by Lieut. Morrow, with Sergt. Baxter for passenger.

There was great excitement at the club and telephone messages brought members from all over the place to see the visitors. Golfers viewed the intrusion on their links with enthusiastic equanimity and the aviators were entertained to lunch in the clubhouse.

They started on the return journey soon after 2 p.m.

who had been hitting everything with a label on it, banged a single right through this same infield, scoring Borton and McCardie. Pete struck his fourth ball into Rhyno's ribs. Carlisle popped to Downs, and McClain was doubled at second.

LEARD SCORES.

Leard scored in the fifth on his own single, a bad heave by Downs and a sacrifice fly by Bayless.

Singles by Coy and Strandberg, coupled up with the former's steal of second, gave San Francisco a tally in the next inning. Things then remained calm and collected until the ninth.

The eighth, however, was saddened by an accident to Hill's face. Repulsed, fouled a $1.25 ball off into the right field bleachers. While Rhyno was innocently gazing off into space some one threw in a new ball. Unfortunately, this ball struck Rhyno where his nose is fastened onto his face. The nose was not entirely dislodged, but was knocked pretty well around under one ear and it took some time to readjust it. No one seems to know who threw the ball, but Bill Guthrie and McClain are both under suspicion, as it came from their direction.

UNKIND.

It is believed that Rhyno's nose was still painful him in the ninth, for Tobin, the first bloke at bat, hit him for a single. Strangely, this single hit Rhyno squarely in the stomach, which was not a bad idea, as it made him forget about the pain in his nose. O'Leary fanned, and Schaller walked. Downs drove to center for one base, and Tobin came in. Coy doubled and Rhyno came in. Schaller chased home. Downs tried to emulate Rhyno, and was subjugated at the plate. Without to McClain's hand, McCardie. Coy took third on the play at the plate, and scored the tying run on Corhan's infield hit. Cartwright popped to Litchi.

AUTOS TO RACE ACROSS DESERT.

EL PASO TO SAN DIEGO EVENT PROPOSED FOR NEXT YEAR.

(BY DESERT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE REPORT.)

San Diego, Oct. 14.—A four-day race from El Paso to this city will be held some time early next year. The date has been tentatively set for February 19 to February 22, but this is not certain, as some favor January 1 to 4.

The Auto Racing Association of San Diego, recently formed, has asked for sanction for the race from the A.A.A. and the racing people have the co-operation of the exposition officials in arranging for the big event.

The course is 90 miles to finish at the Panama-Pacific exposition grounds. The auto association today appointed a committee, composed of F. Byron Naylor, James E. Wadham, A. B. Daniels and Lewis Falk, to make arrangements and to take a path-finding trip over the course.

Byron Naylor of San Diego, C. H. Akers of Phoenix and R. H. Rhinehart of El Paso are sponsors for the plan. A purse of $7500 will be raised for the race.

FOR WOMEN AND MEN. Facts, Features and Fancies.

BY OLIVE GRAY.

THE GOOD HOUSEKEEPER'S HINT: A little salt or vinegar in the water in which vegetables are washed will quickly remove the dirt and the insects.

Have you an Eliminator in your home? I use the capital letter advisedly, for the Eliminator, when once established, becomes the most important person in the household.

Possibly you may be as vague in your knowledge of the actual functions as was that dorky waiter who when told by a client that he would take the same order as his neighbor, said that he wished the eggs eliminated, returned from the kitchen with the information that the cook had broken the handle of the eliminator and it would take several days to have it mended, so wouldn't the customer please content himself with having his eggs cooked some way than eliminated?

Well, the handle to the Eliminator has been broken for many years in some households, it had been in ours until we moved. If you have ever moved you have come face to face with your Eliminator in a household sense, and if you are wise you have straightway resolved to reform. After you have gone over boxes, trunks, barrels and crates, asking yourself and each other "what this was," and "who owned that," until you fairly hated the sight of nearly everything, you will decide, upon a good, vigorous Eliminator. We appointed Sister our Eliminator Plenipotentiary and Destroyer Extraordinary. She has the necessary firmness and persistence. It takes both to be a successful Eliminator. As soon as any one finished reading a letter the Eliminator hastens to ask: "Do you need to keep that? If not give it to me and I will put it in the trash basket to be burned." She has established a capacious receptacle as an eliminator—upon each floor, so there is never the excuse that you will eliminate by and by. There is something more than the physical side to the establishment of an Eliminator in the home; there is actually a psychological phase to it. It develops decision of character and judgment to instantly say what shall and what shall not be made away with. Also it teaches one to cease regretting. Otherwise there would be a continuous wail—"Oh, why did we give away this?" "How I wish we had not destroyed that." "There, I knew I would some time want so and so." It is a part of the new Eliminator regime in our home that there shall be no regrets. Positively we feel better already under the new plan. It is such a comfort to know that there are not a lot of ought-to-be-made-over garments in your closet; and you feel really righteous when you think that the charwoman has probably made them all over for her seven children—or has eliminated them from her household.

Child's Holiday Plate.
For the wee one who is likely to pull its plate of food over into its lap—in the mistaken notion that this is the quickest way of storing food in its little tummy—there is a new holiday affair which will prevent such mistakes. It is a plate holder of strong wire, this plate holder is fastened to the table, and moreover, the place which comes with it is one which helps the baby to learn the proper art of feeding. The plate is deep and has an outward-bound edge, so that the spoon is of necessity lifted before it is lifted, and the little one learns that a full spoon is more satisfying than is one fractionally filled.

Corn Sifter.
Although the corn-on-cob season is pretty well over, I must mention that little implement which is so advantageous to the lover of this vegetable—is it a vegetable? The implement is called a corn sifter, and the name is explanatory. With it you sift the corn down the center of the kernels and thus are enabled to partake of the cream of the corn without the husk. Old people and those who have relegated the toothpick to the dark age, will appreciate this.

Exceedingly Spoony.
When sitting out the kitchen for the bride, do not forget one of those triple spooned spoons. They are joined together in wedlock—spoons of three sizes, a teaspoon, a half-teaspoon and a quarter-teaspoon. No woman can put them asunder, and yet they are useful singly, by merely swinging them upon their swivel.

East 'Em Alive.
Another useful article when getting up a tin shower is the nutmeg grater which simply eats out the whole nutmeg. You place the Connecticut fruit in a holder and proceed to grind, just as you do with a meat grinder, and out comes the meg "sawdust" through a tiny trough.

New Bath Seat.
A bathtub seat, which surpasses the one to place across the tub, is that which fastens onto the side of the tub and swings in any direction. The seat is of heavy enamel and is easily adjusted. Moreover, it may be easily pushed out of the way when you are done with it, and it does not usurp too much room in the tub as did the old kind.

They Preserve Our Treasures.
It has been pointedly brought to our minds that Europe is the guardian of many of our treasures, for priceless art is the charge of all the world. With a feeling of genuine relief we hailed the information that the "Venus de Milo" had been placed in an indestructible iron vault in the Louvre, safe from destructive bombs, and that the "Winged Victory" was buried for a time far below the position of winged Zeppelin. The "Mona Lisa," we are assured, has been wrapped in many coverings of indestructible materials. Too bad that the faint cathedrals could not have been similarly preserved. Some alert inventor should devise a screen to be placed over those edifices, to safeguard from the air pests of war as the old-fashioned fly screens were used to cover cakes.

Home-Made Gifts.
The thoughtful woman is making her Christmas gifts and will smile indulgently upon the hurried last-minute production of her less prudent friends. One whom I know is planning to use her jelly and jam hoard as a Christmas bank. At present she is making the cleverest baskets to contain the small, uniform-sized jars for holiday sending. She uses raffia or reed for her basketry, and, although very simple in construction, no end of value is added to each gift set by means of the individuality thus wrought.

And Pretty Boxery.
A girl who plans to send her famous home-made candy as holiday gifts has already commenced saving and preparing boxes to enclose her sweeties. She manages to find many so-different shapes in both pasteboard and wooden boxes, and these she embellishes in ways of her very own. For instance, she saves pretty colored prints for pasting upon the covers of some. Upon others she paints was sketches, or with a clever brush she paints small Dutch boys and girls, upon a white enameled surface. Most effective are these and suggestive of the chocolate dainties within the boxes. More elaborate, but perhaps no more prized by her friends, are the boxes covered with bits of tapestry and outlined with gilt braid. These she uses for her more fancy guests, such as bonbons and Turkish nougat. Of course, the confections will be made a few days before Christmas, but her boxes are, many of them, in readiness now.

In Fashion's Ranks.
The soft taffeta frock is holding an important place among the early models. Raincoats assume the godet flare. They have pretty and somewhat useless pockets. Walking shoes are made with cloth or buckskin tops in pale shades of gray or tan. Some of the new fur coats are long-waisted, being made on the lines of the basque dress. The most fashionable colors of this season's dress goods are reflected in the new ribbons. Very beautiful is the white satin gown trimmed with a combination of black and white lace. Black and white combinations and soft, rich colors will be in favor for afternoon costumes. Small neckwear of marten and lynx, also ermine and white coneys, will be much in demand. The smartest afternoon frocks will be a combination of velvet and tulle trimmed with fur. With the coming of the heavier materials for colder weather, the plain basque will have its day. The basque is not so suitable for evening gowns. Its simple lines are better for smart street dresses. Black, patent leather pumps trimmed with white kid are very fashionable for afternoon wear.

Francis Committee Is Organized.
SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS TO GIVE HIS VIEWS ON EDUCATION.
A John H. Francis Committee of One Hundred was organized last night in the Public Library assembly-room, D. B. Lyons acting as chairman of the meeting and F. D. Golding, secretary. The object of the committee, every member of which is a pledged friend of the Superintendent of Schools, is to arrange a series of mass meetings in different parts of the city, where the public may have an opportunity to hear him express his views on the subject of education. As set forth in his speech before the National Teachers' Association in St. Paul, which attracted attention in educational circles throughout the country.

MIGHTY WAR BUILDING UP NOBLE CHARACTERS.

Hearts Ache for One Another and Overflow with Sympathy and Kindness for All Alike, Says Bishop Johnson's Wife, who in Her Charity Observed this Phase of the Conflicts by Personal Observation.

PASADENA, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Johnson, who, with her husband, the Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, Episcopal bishop of Los Angeles, returned to their Pasadena home Tuesday from the world's great battlefield, related yesterday that the great European conflict, notwithstanding its horrors, had at least served one great purpose in that it had brought out the very best that there is in the great multitude of people, regardless of nationality.

"Every man, woman and child seems to be better for having passed through it," she declared. "Their hearts are overflowing with sympathy and the milk of human kindness—and they give it to all alike."

"As the men fight each other their hearts also ache for one another, and their wives, sweethearts and mothers spend every waking hour—and they do wherever it is needed."

"I visited the Red Cross Society and it was wonderful to watch those matter every woman in Europe is an 'Angel of Mercy' doing all in her power to make some poor suffering soldier, his widow or his orphaned children a little less unhappy—and it matters not to them whether it be to 'friend or foe'."

"Almost in the twinkling of an eye the very natures of many seemed to change. Pivotal butleries and gifted youths were changed into nature's noblemen and nobles and every moment is devoted by them to doing kind deeds."

"But the very goodness and sympathy of these wonderful people seems almost unearthly and could come only as the result of a great and universal sorrow. No one who has not been there could ever imagine such suffering nor could they comprehend such great sympathy and kindness and such nobleness of character as has been seen since this greatest of all wars was declared."

CITY MANAGER, PERHAPS.
The Crown City may soon have a city manager and a board of seven commissioners, the manager to receive a salary of not over $6000 a year, and the commissioners to be paid $5 each for every meeting which they attend, but shall not receive more than $300 each per annum.

At a charter election which may be held about November 12, this question may be submitted to the voters of Pasadena. The Taxpayers' Protective Association which is urging it suggested the arrangement at a meeting at the John Muir school last night when President C. C. Thompson was in the chair.

BOOSTING HIKE.
William F. Kerr, a member of the Pasadena Athletic Club, left here yesterday morning on a long hike, his final destination to be New York. He carried a letter of introduction from Mayor Rose of Los Angeles to Mayor John Purroy Mitchell of New York City. He will stop at every important city on his way.

According to his present plans the trip will take almost a year. His object in making the long hike is to boost Los Angeles and Pasadena as most attractive places for tourists to visit during the expositions at San Diego and San Francisco.

"Prohibition will work great injury to the cause of temperance. It is a species of intemperance within itself, for it goes beyond the bounds of reason in that it attempts to control a man's appetite by legislation and in making crimes out of things that are not crimes. A prohibition law strikes a blow at the very principles on which our government was founded."

WHITE BLOOD BARS BURIAL.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 14.—Refused the burial rights of the tribe because of the taint of white blood in his veins, Tim Ortega, a San Manuel Indian, brought the body of his sixteen-year-old son to this city and laid it to rest in the cemetery. With tears in his eyes the old Indian sobbed his story to the officers and soon arrangements were made for burial by the county.

The Indian lad was struck by a baseball and died from the effects. The Indian custom prevents the burial on the reservation of any Indian who possesses the contamination of another race.

State Entomological Laboratory at No. 150 South Hollister avenue, has discovered four different kinds of parasites which will destroy the mealybug. With one of these parasites, the brown lacewing, which he has kept under observation for months, he has exploded the popular scientific myth as regards the length of the insect's life. It was thought that after changing its form into that of a fly it died within two days; instead, he has found that after two months they still live, with no signs of dying.

CHARTER CARRIES BY LIGHT VOTE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

ALHAMBRA, Oct. 14.—With a majority of thirty-five voters in favor of the proposed new charter which has been the chief topic of discussion for the last fortnight, the freeholders who are responsible for the document are wearing tonight the smile that won't come off.

Contrary to expectations the vote was extremely light, many abstaining to take the trouble to go to the polls. The total vote cast was 565 and 525 votes were in favor of the charter. The liquor proposition was lost by 120 votes, which means that no hotel or dining-room in the city will be privileged to sell alcoholic drinks of any kind.

Those in opposition to the charter are taking the defeat philosophically but declare the result is due to lack of interest displayed by the citizens.

LONG BEACH FEARS CHARTER MAY PROVE BOGUS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
LONG BEACH, Oct. 14.—Deciding that he crossed the dead line between gospel language and profanity, the church and temperance people are somewhat shocked over the intemperance utterances of William Mullein, evangelist and "California Dry" advocate, last night, at the mass meeting of "dry folk," on the proposed franchise. Mullein went from Bible phrases into cuss words until half of the audience left the hall.

Mullen, after offering prayer, devoted himself of cost, lie and collar, and rolled up his sleeve.

"Any man who dares say that I, in opposing this damnable new charter, am setting myself up against temperance," Mullein screamed, "is a damned liar out of hell."

DAVID HARUM'S AT THE BEACH.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

VENICE, Oct. 14.—The City Trustees are puzzled over the question as to whether the city should sell the purchaser of a team of horses, to be advertised for sale by the city, that the animals have the run-away habit. Trustee J. J. Lewis moved that the buyer of the otherwise excellent horses be given fair horses, but other members objected on the score that the taxpayers' money would then be at stake, and the animals might not be sold. The horses are used in the street-cleaning department, and but for their habit of getting up and going fast, are two of the best workers on the bay. The question remains to be settled.
